

Complete Guide to Dubai's Outpass Process

An integral aspect of the immigration system of Dubai is the outpass process. No matter what your status in Dubai (visitor, resident, or employer), being aware of how the outpass process works can save you from having to pay fines, being delayed in your exit from the country, or facing other potential/legal obstacles. This complete overview provides a detailed explanation of the outpass process in Dubai so that anyone who is unfamiliar with it can easily understand what it represents.

What is an Outpass?

An outpass is a document issued by the Immigration Department of the UAE government that permits an individual to leave the UAE based on the reason for their visa expiring or being cancelled. An outpass also functions as a temporary exit permit; it is generally rated for duration of use.

Where an Outpass is Needed

You may be asked to provide an Outpass if any of the below applies:

- Overstaying a visa
- Having your visa cancelled without exiting
- Losing your passport
- Absconding or being involved with any immigration issues

Different Types of Outpass in Dubai

Depending on your circumstances, each type of outpass will require different forms of documentation and approvals. Generally speaking, an outpass will be required if:

- Tourist or Visit Visa was overstayed
- Visa Cancelled
- Emergency Exits
- Legal or Administrative issues

Required Documents

When requesting an outpass, you will usually need to supply one or more of the following documents:

1. Passport copy (or police report if passport is lost)
2. Visa copy or cancellation paper
3. Passport-size photographs
4. Application form
5. Payment of applicable fines or fees

6. Exit ticket (in some cases)
7. Authorities may request additional documents depending on individual circumstances.
8. Outpass Application Process

The procedures for applying for an outpass generally include the following:

Checking your Visa Status -- Review your visa status on file, and ensure that your immigration file is current.

Submitting Required Documents - Submit your required documents through established processes of the authorities.

Paying Fines/Fees -- Pay all necessary fines/fees (if any) associated with overstaying or other forms of administrative fines, if any.

Receiving Outpass Once the outpass is approved, you shall receive an outpass with a limited period of validity. Once you receive your outpass you must exit the country during the period of time specified.

The Outpass Validity Period

Typically an outpass only has a short validity period. For small issues it is 2-3 working days. For complex cases you might get 5-10 days. Therefore, it is very important that you leave the country within this period, or you will incur more fees/fines or have complications.

Important Points About Outpasses

- Outpasses are not visa extensions
- Only available for leaving
- Failure to exit on time can incur fees/fines
- Policies/rules/requirements change frequently
- Each case is dealt with on a case-by-case basis
- Seek help from the authorities for a better chance of leaving the country as intended.

The outpass system in Dubai is intended to be a legal method to leave if traditional methods of getting a visa do not work. Although it appears to be difficult, it can be simplified once you know all the required information and the steps needed in order to obtain the required documents.

And lizaz falls right in for your help to guide you through the documentation process smoothly and keep you updated with the right information.